Grading & Evaluation Policy

6-Week Hybrid Internship Program

Duration 6 Weeks	Total Projects 6	Total Marks 60	Pass Marks 35/60
-----------------------------------	-----------------------------------	---------------------------------	-----------------------------------

Purpose

This document defines the grading method, weekly project marking criteria, passing requirements, fail category, and high-performer acknowledgement criteria for the Alkhidmat 6-week hybrid internship program. It is designed to ensure fair, transparent, and consistent evaluation of all interns across regions and online/physical participation modes.

1. Assessment Overview

The internship will be assessed through six weekly projects. Each week carries 10 marks, making the total assessment 60 marks. Weekly marks will be awarded on the basis of project participation, proof of participation, assignment quality, and proper report formatting/submission. The same marking structure will be used for every week to maintain consistency.

2. Total Marks & Passing Criteria

Assessment Area	Marks	Requirement	Status/Outcome
Weekly Project 1	10	Participation + Proof + Assignment + Report	Included in total
Weekly Project 2	10	Participation + Proof + Assignment + Report	Included in total
Weekly Project 3	10	Participation + Proof + Assignment + Report	Included in total
Weekly Project 4	10	Participation + Proof + Assignment + Report	Included in total
Weekly Project 5	10	Participation + Proof + Assignment + Report	Included in total
Weekly Project 6	10	Participation + Proof + Assignment + Report	Included in total
Total Internship Marks	60	Cumulative score of all weekly projects	Final result
Minimum Passing Marks	35/60	Equivalent to 58.33%	Pass / Completion eligible

3. Weekly Project Rubric (10 Marks per Week)

Each weekly project will be marked out of 10 using the following criteria:

Component	Marks	Evaluation Basis	Full Marks Standard	Low / Zero Marks
Participation & Engagement	2	Actual involvement in the assigned project/activity, attendance where applicable, responsiveness, teamwork, and active contribution.	Intern participated actively and completed required activity/project tasks with visible commitment.	No participation, very weak involvement, or participation not aligned with assigned project.
Proof of Participation	2	Valid proof such as attendance record, activity photos, screenshots, volunteer logs, coordinator verification, or field evidence.	Clear, relevant, and verifiable proof submitted with the report/assignment.	No proof submitted, unclear proof, repeated/irrelevant proof, or proof that cannot be verified.
Assignment / Project Output	3	Quality, relevance, completion, creativity, field learning, practical effort, and alignment with the weekly project objective.	Assignment is complete, relevant, practical, and reflects meaningful understanding of the project.	Incomplete, copied, irrelevant, very weak, or missing assignment/project output.
Report Formatting & Submission	3	Report structure, formatting, clarity, evidence attachment, timely submission, and completion of required sections.	Report is properly formatted, complete, clear, submitted on time, and includes required details/evidence.	Late, poorly formatted, incomplete, missing required sections, or not submitted.
Total	10	Weekly project score.	Complete weekly performance.	Marked according to evidence and submission quality.

4. Result Categories

Category	Marks Range	Percentage Range	Outcome
High Performer / Outstanding	54-60	90%-100%	Eligible for separate acknowledgement / appreciation.
Excellent	48-53	80%-88.33%	Successfully completed with strong performance.
Good	42-47	70%-78.33%	Successfully completed.
Pass	35-41	58.33%-68.33%	Internship completion eligible.
Fail / Not Completed	0-34	Below 58.33%	Not eligible for internship completion certificate.

5. Fail / Not Completed Criteria

- An intern scoring below 35 marks out of 60 will be placed in the Fail / Not Completed category.
- Fail-category interns will not receive the internship completion certificate.
- Repeated non-submission of weekly projects, assignments, or reports may result in failure even if partial participation occurred.
- False, copied, manipulated, or unverifiable proof may lead to marks deduction or disqualification from that week's score.
- Interns must follow the submission format and deadlines communicated by the internship management team.

6. High Performer Acknowledgement

A separate acknowledgement may be issued to high-performing interns who demonstrate exceptional commitment, timely submissions, quality reporting, and consistent participation throughout the internship.

- Recommended benchmark: 54 marks or above out of 60.

- Final approval may also consider punctuality, discipline, originality, teamwork, and coordinator feedback.
- Acknowledgement may include a certificate of appreciation, public recognition, social media mention, or any other recognition decided by the management.

. Coordinator / Evaluator Guidelines

- Use the same 10-mark rubric for each weekly project to ensure consistency across all interns.
- Award marks only against submitted work, valid proof, and verified participation.
- Maintain a record of weekly submissions and evidence in digital form for audit and future reference.
- Where an intern participates online, acceptable proof may include screenshots, online attendance, activity links, submission records, or coordinator verification.
- Where an intern participates physically, acceptable proof may include attendance, field photos, signed verification, or activity documentation.
- Late submissions may be accepted only according to the deadline policy decided by internship management; marks may be deducted for delayed submission.
- Any special case must be reviewed by the internship management team before final result declaration
